

Jeanne Jones

Communication Specialist & Executive Coach
Expert in Presentation Skills and Executive Presence

Jeanne Jones brings over 25 years of experience in business, education and theatre to her work as a communication specialist and executive coach. She started her career as a Broadway actress and eventually transferred her performance skills to the business world. Jeanne has worked as a corporate spokesperson appearing at industry events, in training films and in commercials for Fortune 500 companies.

Jeanne has served on faculties at the University of Northern Iowa, Dean College and Houston Baptist University. In addition, she has held management positions with event planning, theatrical and large nonprofit organizations in the NYC area.

Over the course of her career, Jeanne has coached thousands of business leaders. Her unique background provides her with a dynamic blend of humor, empathy and energy that she uses to motivate others to realize their full potential. Jeanne holds a Bachelor of Science in Music Education with honors from University of Illinois. She earned her Master's degree in Music Education from University of Northern Iowa.

Client Industries

- Finance
- Law
- Healthcare
- Pharmaceuticals
- Technology
- Professional Services

Awards & Accreditations

- Mind Gym Academy, Coach of Distinction
- Certified ProComm, Ltd. Presentation Skills Coach
- Exec|Comm Meeting Skills Trainer and Coach

Additional Credentials

- Union member of Actors Equity, Screen Actors Guild and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists